Quiet and secluded coastal Maine cottage located in Bath, Maine on a beautiful warm water tidal bay.

This cottage is a private nature lovers paradise, with nature trails to hike right outside your door. On a regular basis you can see bald eagles, ospreys and other wildlife right outside your door.

There is your own spacious deck with breathtaking views of the bays sunsets. The stairs from the back deck lead you down to your own private sandy beach, and warm tidal water. The beach is perfect for relaxing, swimming, fishing, canoeing, kayaking or paddleboarding. Close by there are rentals of kayaks, paddleboards and boats available.

Located at the front of the cottage there is another deck to relax and enjoy the star lit sky. The beachfront cottage has full kitchen and living room, one bedroom, large loft and one full bathroom. There is enough room to sleep 6 people comfortably.

Downtown Bath, Brunswick, and Freeport are all withing a short drive away.

Popham Beach and Reid state park beach are a must see and are also a short drives distance.

If what you are looking for is quiet, relaxation, swimming, water sports, and beautiful sunsets then this is the right location for you.
